

Doncaster Mansion House

Autumn Events

Georgian Dancing

Saturday 30 September

11.30am, 12.45pm, 2pm (Drop-in sessions)

Learn the dances from the Jane Austen period with Leicestershire Historical Dancers. No experience or partner necessary – just a willingness to have a go!

A Celebration of the Work of James Paine

Saturday 7 October

Celebrate Doncaster's revered architect James Paine at an open morning with guided tours of the Mansion House. A series of talks about his life and work will take place in the afternoon from 1.15pm. Open morning and tours are drop-in sessions but prior booking is required for talks.

Enter the World of Jane Austen with Julia Soares-McCormick

Thursday 12 October at 2pm

A lively, humorous and informative lecture about the gowns worn during the Regency period featuring beautifully costumed mannequins dressed in outfits from the era. (Free admission by ticket)

To book or for further information contact Doncaster Heritage Services on 01302 737414 or e-mail peter.clegg@doncaster.gov.uk