

Doncaster Mansion House

November Events

An Evening with the Romantic Poets

Tuesday 7 November at 7pm

Ian Parks and Read to Write present an evening of spoken word poetry from the great Romantic Poets - including Byron, Wordsworth, Shelley, and Keats - who flourished during the Regency Period. (Free admission by ticket)

Power, Patronage & Politics in Georgian Doncaster

Friday 17 November at 2pm

Dave Adgar examines sources of wealth - land, slavery and trade and how this affected Yorkshire and Doncaster- with a focus on the 1807 election. (Free admission by ticket)

Simon Lindley Presents

Sunday 19 November at 3pm

Claire Strafford, soprano & Julia Breakspear, flute, with members of Doncaster Choral Society directed and accompanied by Dr Simon Lindley. The programme will include music of the Regency period by Thomas Arne, Handel and others. (Tickets £5)

Adams - The Butler

Wednesday 22 November

'Adams', - the Butler in a grand Regency house, has been 'in service' for many years. He explains the nature of life 'below stairs', the duties of servants, their living and working conditions, and how they keep the household in good order. (Free admission by ticket)

To book or for further information contact Doncaster Heritage Services on 01302 737414 or e-mail peter.clegg@doncaster.gov.uk

MANSION
HOUSE
DONCASTER

Funding raised by
The National Lottery and awarded by the Heritage Lottery Fund

Doncaster
Metropolitan Borough Council